

37th International PigeonMarket & DBA - Deutsche Brieftaubenausstellung from 28th to 29th November 2026 in Kassel/Germany

1. Admission

All companies shall be admitted whose commodities or products are part of the pigeon racing industry. Exhibitors shall not be entitled to let space in whole or in part to any third parties. Transporters may be exhibited. For motor vehicles displayed indoors, the safety guidelines for vehicles must be observed.

2. Registration

By registering, the exhibitor undertakes to recognize the exhibition terms and contractual terms pursuant to § 145 of the BGB [German Civil Code].

The package incurred shall be paid in any case – even if the reservation cannot be utilized on any unexpected reasons. In exceptional cases, 25 per cent of the costs incurred may be reimbursed if the reservation can be transferred to another party by the manager of the exhibition.

If the event cannot take place because of force majeure (natural catastrophes, war, livestock epidemic), a reimbursement of the stand fee cannot be claimed.

The closing date of registration for the international exhibition is 1st July 2026. Should the halls be fully reserved at an earlier date, no guarantee for a stand area can be given. This also applies if the registration form is received within the set period.

3. Allocation of stands

The allocation of stands by the management of the exhibition is carried out on the basis of the stand size and stand number indicated in writing. When allocating the stands, the management attempts to comply with the wishes of exhibitors as far as possible. Preference will be given to those who book early.

The rental agreement shall be deemed to have been concluded upon written confirmation of the stand by the management of the exhibition.

Should changes in the allocation of areas become subsequently necessary, the exhibitors concerned shall be informed in good time. They shall, however, not be entitled to cancel their contract or claim damages on the reasons of these changes.

4. Arrangement and equipment

The arrangement and equipping of the stands shall be effected by the exhibitors themselves. The design of the stands must comply with the statutory regulations. Increased fire load on the stand area is prohibited. Fire extinguishers must be kept ready by the exhibitor for flammable articles offered for sale. Aisles/passages and doors/gates must be kept completely clear.

5. Protection of existing fixtures and fittings

The exhibitor shall be liable for any damage caused by the exhibitor, his or her personnel or suppliers, to the exhibition buildings or their fixtures and fittings.

Any installations, lighting appliances, hydrants, fire extinguishers, signs and similar objects shall be treated with care by the exhibitor and must not be altered or transferred to a different location. Any hydrants and electrical distribution boxes must not be obstructed.

6. movable walls

The partition walls must not be stapled, painted or damaged in any way. Posters may only be attached with easily detachable adhesive strips.

7. Delivery of goods

The exhibitors may deliver goods to the exhibition grounds one hour prior to the beginning of the exhibition and one hour after the end of the exhibition.

8. Cleaning

The cleaning of the aisles shall be effected by the management of the exhibition. Each exhibitor shall be responsible for cleaning his own stand in the evenings. Minor waste may be deposited in the containers along the aisles.

The organiser assumes no duty of care for exhibition goods and stand equipment and excludes all liability for damage to property/ personal injury and theft/loss.

9. Payment

The debts invoiced shall be paid within 14 days after receipt of invoice. Invoices will be sent out by beginning of September.

The total amount of any invoices issued at a later date shall be paid immediately after receipt.

If the claims for payment are not or not fully satisfied, the entitlement to the rented area shall become forfeited. The hirer shall in any case be liable for the payment of the full amount of his or her rent within the set period.

10. Vaccination certificates for all pigeons

A copy of the vaccination certificate for the pigeons exhibited must be presented on demand. There is no limit to the number of pigeons exhibited per stand.

The original vaccination certificate must be sent to the management of exhibition till 13th November 2026.

11. Parking facilities

The showground in Kassel is located very conveniently on the motorway network. Sufficient parking area free of charge is available to exhibitors and visitors. Parking spaces are allocated by the parking attendant. An exhibitor parking area with direct and separate access will be provided outside the trade fair site for owners of the exhibitor's identification.

For reasons of safety, only trucks, transporters and trailers may park within the fenced fair area. However, they must not be moved during the opening hours of the fair for reasons of safety.

Please note!!

All exhibitors are obligated to take away their packing material such as cardboard boxes, foils, pallets and all stand material such as wood laths, carpets etc.

The utilisation of any disposable tableware or non deposit bottles is not permitted in any of the fair halls.
